Pro Hac Vice to the Bar of this Court

GENERAL ORDER NO. 10-02

Pursuant to S. D. Ohio Civ. R. 83.3(f) and subject to the provisions of the Plan for the Attorney Admissions Fund of this Court, each attorney seeking to be admitted or readmitted to the Bar of this Court must tender to the Clerk of this Court immediately upon the filing of the application for such admission the fee set forth below for the type of admission being sought.

Each attorney applying for initial admission to the Bar of this Court shall tender a fee to the Clerk of this Court in the amount of $150.00 at the time of application. Such admission shall require the successful completion of the next subsequent written examination for admission to the Bar of this Court administered pursuant to S. D. Ohio Civ. R. 83.3(d). Should the application for admission not be granted, the fee will not be returned to the applicant except for good cause shown by the applicant.

Each attorney suspended for three months or less shall be automatically reinstated at the end of the period of suspension upon the filing with the Court of an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the order of suspension. An attorney previously disbarred or suspended from the Bar of this Court for more than three months, may not resume practice until reinstated by Order for Readmission of this Court. A fee in the amount of $150.00 shall be tendered to the Clerk of Court upon application for readmission to the Bar of this Court.

Pursuant to S. D. Ohio Civ. R. 83.3(e), all attorneys not permanently admitted to the Bar of this Court, seeking admission to appear in a specific case, must file an application to appear pro hac vice and tender a fee of $200.00 to the Clerk of Court. However, per S. D. Ohio Civ. R. 83.3(c)(3) and (e)(4), the pro hac vice fees imposed in this General Order shall not be collected from attorneys representing governmental agencies of the United States, members of the Ohio Attorney General's Office or attorneys employed by the Ohio Public Defender who appear in either civil or criminal matters. In the case of applications for admission pro hac vice, should the application not be granted, the fee will not be returned to the applicant.

All such fees collected by the Clerk, except those collected under 28 U.S.C. § 1914, shall be deposited in the Court's Attorney Admission Fund established and administered pursuant to the Plan for the Administration of the Attorney Admission Fund.

This General Order supersedes General Orders No. 98-1, 00-1 and 07-01.

This General Order is effective as of August 1, 2010.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
