

POWER Act

Pro Bono Work to Empower and Represent (POWER) Act

EMPOWERING SURVIVORS. ADVANCING RIGHTS.

The Federal POWER Act program brings together attorneys, judges, advocates, and community leaders to address domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking and human trafficking through education, collaboration, and legal advocacy.

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

Learn about DV resources in the Miami Valley.

Hear from advocates on how to build survivor-centered approaches to legal representation.

Become aware of opportunities to support access to justice for vulnerable individuals and families.

PRESENTERS:

Judges of the U.S. District Court and the Montgomery County Common Pleas Court, Domestic Relations Division, along with representatives of the Artemis Center and Legal Aid attorneys will present information, answer your questions, and provide meaningful instructions on how you can assist survivors, either through your own practice or through volunteering with the Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Project.

FREE CLE OPPORTUNITY!

1.0 HOUR OF CLE CREDIT PENDING for attorneys who attend the full program.
