The United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio is seeking applicants for an Official Court Reporter. Official Court Reporters report directly to the Case Management Supervisor and to the District Judge to whom the court reporter is primarily assigned. Official Court Reporters serve the Court en banc and not a particular Judge. However, it is the Court's objective to have one Official Court Reporter assigned primarily to the work for each district judge. Official Court Reporters must adhere to the requirements of the Judicial Conference of the United States, and the Court Reporter's Manual published by the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. This position involves attending and recording verbatim reporting of proceedings, completing record-keeping forms, documenting the information contained in reports, as well as maintaining and safeguarding records until their disposition according to the statutory requirements and Judicial Conference policy.

ABOUT THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO:

The Southern District of Ohio covers a broad geographic area encompassing forty-eight urban and rural counties from an imaginary line just north of Columbus south to the Ohio River. The District is comprised of over 260 individuals including twenty-eight Judicial Officers, Chambers Staff, the Clerk's Office staff, the U.S. Probation Office's staff and U.S. Pretrial Services Office's staff; located in the Cincinnati, Columbus, and Dayton Courthouses.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Technical and functional support duties will include:

- Attending and recording verbatim reporting of in-person court sessions, remote hearings and conferences, and other proceedings held before the U.S. District Judges and Magistrate Judges and for the transcription of those proceedings upon request.
- Ability to read back all or any portions of the court record, to perform well under pressure, to produce transcripts within strict time limitations, and to work as part of a team of reporters for the Judges of the Court.

- Knowledge, skill and ability to produce accurate transcription utilizing computer-aided translation.
- Familiarity with and adherence to all requirements of the Court Reporter Management Plan for the District.
- Determine billing and formats which comply with the Judicial Conference requirements.
- Delivering and/or mailing prepared official transcripts.
- Certifying and filing the original transcripts with the Clerk of Court.
- Maintain accurate and legible records which are subject to audits.
- Preparation and filing of all Administrative Office reports.
- Responding timely to official correspondence. Compliance with all administrative duties assigned by his or her manager and the Court.
- Responsible for providing and maintaining his or her own court compatible equipment and software, e.g. computer, a display writer, cable, realtime software.
- Occasional travel within the District.
- Work hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or at any time outside normal working hours as determined by the Court as stated in the Court Reporter Management Plan for the District.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Realtime certification is preferred, however, candidates who can provide realtime and are actively working towards certification will also be considered.
- Preference will be given to applicants holding a Certificate of Merit from the NCRA.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS: To be considered for this position:

- Candidate must possess at least four years of court reporting experience as a freelance reporter or as a court reporter, or a combination thereof, and must have passed the Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) Examination administered by the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA) or passed an equivalent qualifying examination such as the Certified Shorthand Reporter (CSR) Examination administered by NCRA, USCRA or DRA.
- Skilled in the use of Computer-Aided Transcription (CAT).
- Applicants will be expected to provide transcripts for Judges upon request, without charge.
- High school graduate or equivalent.

The successful applicant must have excellent communication, writing and interpersonal skills with the ability to work with others and have the ability to learn new technologies. The incumbent must be able to multitask, be highly self-motivated and proactive, and possess tact and good judgment. The ability to maintain confidentiality is essential.

Level 2 – Requires Merit Certification.

Level 3 – Must have successfully completed the Certified Realtime Reporter exam offered by the NCRA or an equivalent exam.

Level 4 – Must possess a Registered Merit Reporter Certificate from the NCRA in addition to the requirement of Level 3.

*Level 5 – Federal Judiciary Court Reporters hired before and continuously employed since 10/11/2009, must have ten years of service in the federal courts in addition to the requirement Level 4.

SPECIALIZED EXPERIENCE: The successful candidate has experience in most of the following software applications currently utilized by the Court: Microsoft Office (Word & Excel), Adobe Acrobat, and Internet Explorer/Mozilla Firefox.
