DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS ORDER NO. 21-A

NUNC PRO TUNC ORDER

On November 7, 2016, this Court issued Dispositive Motions Order No. (“DMO”) 21, its decision on Defendant’s Motion for Summary Judgment Related to Specific Causation. DMO 21 contains a scrivener’s error on page two. (ECF No. 4810.) The second sentence of the first full paragraph on page two states:

Application of the Probable Link Finding establishes that, “based upon the weight of the available scientific evidence, it is more likely than not that there is a link between that class member’s exposure to C-8” and his or her Linked Disease, and DuPont is prohibited from challenging whether “it is probable that exposure to C-8 is capable of causing” that Linked Disease. (S.A. at §§ 1.49, 3.3, 12.2.1, 12.2.2.)

(DMO 21 at 2.) That sentence is hereby replaced with the following sentence:

Application of the Probable Link Finding establishes that, “based upon the weight of the available scientific evidence, it is more likely than not that there is a link between exposure to C-8 and [the Linked Disease] among Class Members,” and DuPont is prohibited from challenging whether “it is probable that exposure to C-8 is capable of causing” that Linked Disease. (S.A. at §§ 1.49, 3.3, 12.2.1, 12.2.2.)

The Court has replaced that page in DMO No. 21 so that it now reflects the proper paragraph.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
